✓ Plan Your Business

Create a business plan for your restaurant.

The business plan is a written, viable plan of action to guide your success. Economic Development Partnership of North Carolina has great resources to help with your business plan.

Register your business.

Your business must be registered. It's a good idea to perform a name search online or in office to determine if the proposed business name has already been filed. If you've organized as an LLC register with the N.C. Secretary of State. Corporations also register with North Carolina as well.

If you're organized as a sole proprietorship or general partnership, file with the Durham County Register of Deeds and pay the $26 file fee.

Apply for an Employer Identification Number (EIN) from the IRS.

Also known as a Federal Tax ID Number, you'll need an EIN if you will be hiring employees, forming a partnership, or corporation. Read more about EINs and apply online for yours with the IRS.

Determine your business legal structure.

Before selecting a business structure, consult your attorney and/or accountant as each structure carries with it unique legal and tax consequences.

Sign up for a State Tax ID.

To collect sales and use taxes, you'll need to register the N.C. Department of Revenue. You will receive information from the Department of Revenue on sales and use tax reporting and remittance requirements.

Learn about financial resources available.

Small business owners in North Carolina have financial resources available at the federal level and right here in North Carolina.

Plan Your Location

Find a location zoned for your restaurant.

The Unified Development Ordinance \(UDO\) designates zoning of properties in Durham. Look up “Restaurant” in the UDO’s Table of Uses to find the zoning districts in which restaurants are allowed. Use the Zoning Atlas to find properties with the zoning you need.

Confirm zoning for the location you want.

Send a “Business Zoning Verification Form” to the City of Durham/Durham County Planning Department. You can also visit the Development Services Center at Durham City Hall.

Choose your design professionals.

Depending on the type of construction, you may need to hire a licensed professional, such as an architect, contractor or General Contractor. Contact City of Durham/Durham County Planning Department to determine if you will need to do so.

Check if your location will require historic review.

Some locations and buildings need to have renovations reviewed by the Historic Preservation Commission (HPC).

Complete and sign your lease.

To avoid common pitfalls, it is best to review the lease with your attorney.

Develop Your Space

Learn about the City’s Development Review Process.

Development Review Section of the Durham City-County Planning Department reviews plans and serves as case managers for projects. It’s also good to have an idea of what the City-County timelines look like for review.

Obtain a building permit.

Have your general contractor start the building permit process with City/County inspections. Your general contractor can expedite the plan review process by submitting plan documents digitally.

Monitor your progress.

Stay current with the progress of your building plan review status, permits, and Certificates of Compliance online.

Apply for a sign permit.

Prior to installation, a sign permit must be issued per Unified Development Ordinance \(UDO\). Both permanent and temporary signs require permits.

Contact the fire department.

To ensure your building meets the N.C. Fire Code, you should contact the Durham Fire Department. Note: A Change of Use will require a full inspection.

Complete an Outdoor Seating Permit Application.

Eating establishments and restaurants located in the Downtown Design and Compact Design zoning districts that wish to operate an outdoor seating area on City-maintained, public rights-of-way, City sidewalks, public alleys, and/or pedestrian ways must apply.

Food Service Regulations

Complete the New Food Service Establishment Plan Review Application.

Then submit it to County that includes the menu, scaled drawing, specification sheets for new equipment, and the required fee. Plan on a response within two weeks.

Ensure one employee is a certified food protection manager.

Review the North Carolina Food Code Manual.

Verify N.C. Food Rules Compliance

Understand the rules around food protection and sanitation.

Complete a Transitional Food Service Plan Review.

If the establishment is already in existence, you need to complete a Transitional Plan Review Application—it's good for 180 days.

Complete a Renovation Plan Review application.

If the restaurant is making only minor changes, your Renovation Plan Review ensures you'll meet N.C. Food Code requirements.

Contact Durham County Plan Review Specialist.

Call (919) 560-7800 at least 5 but not more than 30 business days prior to projected opening date to schedule the permitting evaluation.
